INTRODUCTION

1. Access to the Circuit

The accredited TV-Radio representatives can enter into the Circuit facilities, the Press Room and the Paddock area. The press accreditation gives no admission to the track and the Parc Fermé. The permanent pass "Media-Press", issued by CIK-FIA as well as the local ASN, allows free access to the circuit facilities but not to the track or the Parc Fermé.

2. Applicants

TV-Radio networks that intend to realize journalistic reports about CIK-FIA events, can require the press accreditation. Commercial organisations, commercial free-lance operators, besides not journalistic personnel from networks, cannot be accredited (read further details at point 3). Networks can require the accreditation for a maximum of three appointees for each TV-Radio network.

3. Norms and restrictions

Radio-TV journalists or operators that intend to follow this event only for commercial purposes, as selling video footages to drivers, team members or private people, are excluded from accreditation. Television shootings have only to be realized by accredited cameramen and only after formal authorization by WSK Promotion and the media rights holder of the events.

WSK Promotion besides reserves the right to require copyright free copies in limited number to be fixed on spot, of the material realised during the WSK events. TV shootings that will be provided can be used, mentioning the author, for WSK Promotion media activities.

4. Press accreditation procedure

Applications for accreditation must reach, within the established terms, WSK Promotion's Press Office. All the applications will be checked in all their data. Those ones containing untruthful information will be rejected. Released passes will however lose their value and they will be immediately retired (even during the event) if, even in a second time, information in the applications should be false.

*Applications that will not reach within the established terms or uncompleted in their enclosed documentation will be rejected. Besides, WSK Promotion by consent with the circuits' holders, reserves the right to impose a maximum number of accreditations to TV Operators.

5. Regulation to enter the track

The admission to the track area is only permitted to the media rights holder operators, instead, it is possible to make TV footages from outside the track and into all the other areas of the facilities, paddocks included.
